

Robyn Ochs

is a dynamic and experienced workshop leader and public speaker.

Robyn is the editor of the Bisexual Resource Guide, & a co-founder of the Bisexual Resource Center, & the Boston Bisexual Women's Network.

She has taught at Tufts University, MIT, & at Johnson State College. Courses have included: "The Queer Agenda"; "The Politics of Sexual Orientation"; & "Transgressing Binaries: Sex, Gender, Race & Sexual Orientation."

She is the editor of the Bisexual Resource Guide, and co-founder of the Bisexual Resource Center, and the Boston Bisexual Women's Network.

She has appeared on a number of talk shows (only the "better" ones), including Donohue, Rolanda and Maury Povich, and has been quoted in Newsweek, Playgirl, Seventeen, & the Utne Reader.

Her primary interests are identity and coalition building.

Robyn is available to give presentations and workshops for your college, university, conference or community group.

Presentations Include

- Beyond Binaries: Living a Both/And Identity in an Either/Or World
- Bisexuality, Feminism, Men and Me
- My "Family" Values: Lessons Learned From A Generation of GLBT Activism
- Bisexuality: Myths and Realities
- Transgressing Binaries: Activism & Academia

Workshops Include

- Choosing to Label: What's in a Name
- Bisexuality 101
- Bisexuality: New Meanings For a New Generation
- Homophobia: What you can do about it
- Working With Bisexual Clients
- How to Be An Ally
- Putting the B & T into your GLBT Group
- Loosening the Gender Girdle: How Gender Affects You
- Burnout Prevention for Activists

...and more.

All workshops are highly interactive, combining structured exercises with open discussion, and are normally between 1.5 and 2 hours in length.

All presentations and workshops are individually tailored to fit the needs of your group.

Robyn will also custom design workshops and presentations for your particular needs... for your GLBT student group, for classes, for counseling, student activities and residence life staff, for campus leaders, or for the general public.

Robyn Ochs wants to speak with you!